The Games People Play

2012 Shop Hop

June 22, 23, 24, 2012

Friday & Saturday 9-6

Sunday 12-5

If you want to keep up with our newest products and fabrics be sure to check out our Blog at Sew-ciety.com. We also added lots of tips and techniques with videos.

We have exciting news for 2012! We will be participating in the Denver Shop Hop for the first time ever...to be held August 3, 4 & 5. Fabric is being specially designed to focus on Colorado wildflowers.

We welcome back Marsha Kirsch, Viking/Pfaff Ambassador, for 3 fun-filled, creative and inspiring days, March 29, 30 & 31. Get out your specialty feet you haven't used for a while come make a jacket, purse and pillow!

The new Hoopsisters 2012, Earth to Quilters, has arrived. We are busy preparing samples. Classes will begin in May. It doesn't have to be a quilt this year; everything is included to make up to 5 different quilts and 4 projects. Projects include hipster bag, mouse bag, George Trimmer Bag and a handbag. Make them all or just a few blocks.

We are taking signups for the new Buck A Block. We have three lovely color ways to choose from at the shop.

Do you have lots of quilt tops finished but don't know what to do next? Don't miss three days with Linda Visnaw. Topics include the timeless class "How to Quilt Your Quit, Quilt Doodle and Quilt As You Go Bag."

"The Games People Play" is the theme of the Heart of Colorado Shop Hop. Hop from Castle Rock to Pueblo, June 22-24!

Gail Dodson, Viking/Pfaff Software Specialist returns for Tips and Tricks on your home quilter, and two days of software classes.

Know-How Training ✂

Basic-Apr 9, 10am-1pm

Embroidery May 14, 10am-1pm

Are you ready to get friendly with your new Husqvarna Viking and Pfaff machines? Get the most from your machine! These classes are free if you purchased your machine at Sew-Ciety. Class fee is $25 per hour if machine was purchased elsewhere. Also, offered by appointment if you are unable to attend our scheduled classes.

Marsha Kirsch ✂

Viking/Pfaff Educator

Marsha Kirsch has always enjoyed the creative aspect of design and embellishments. She used her creativity as the basis of a craft business called “The Painted Picket” designing wooden decorations for the home. More recently, she created a line of jacket patterns under The Painted Picket name. Throughout these endeavors, she has derived great enjoyment from interacting with customers to share her enthusiasm for creating quilts, jackets and accessories. The combination of the advanced machines and the comprehensive software has opened up new doors of creativity that she enjoys sharing with customers. She was a guest on Behind the Seams and America Sews. Join Marsha for three days and expand your creativity.

Linda Visnaw,

How to Quilt your Quilt

Thur, June 7, 10am-4pm

You have taken great pains to pick just the right colors and fabrics. Your points are all pointed and each seam is flat...now what? Spend a day leaning how to plan and audition stitch motifs for your quilt and turn it into a master piece. Identify shapes and sizes on the quilt top you bring to class see how the quilt's theme can be inspired by who it is intended for or the mood of the quilt itself. In this rich learning environment you will not only plan for two of your own designs but also collaborate, view the designs of others, and learn from everyone else in the class. Whether you decide to machine quilt the quilt yourself or have a talented Longarm quilter do the job, this class is a must.

Teacher: Linda Visnaw
