

Exclusively at Sew-ciety!

Face your free motion fear with Linda Visnaw!

While she no longer travels to teach, Linda comes to Sew-ciety once a year to be among friends. Don't miss your chance to learn from a true free-motion maven!

Linda is a nationally-recognized quilt educator. Her enthusiasm is contagious as she works to inspire confidence in her students, unlocking their creativity in a gentle and encouraging manner. With her background in education, she has designed a series of step-by-step lessons that guide quilters through the entry-level techniques of designing quilting motifs, free-motion quilting.

Choose 1 or more classes to inspire you!

Pre-Doodling (Monday, June 5, 2017)

Are you ready to add "free motion" to your quilting skills? Then this is the class series for you. The focus of this class centers on learning to become comfortable with moving the fabric.

How to Quilt your Quilt (Tuesday, June 6, 2017)

You have taken great pains to pick just the right colors and fabrics. Your points are all pointed and each seam is flat...now what? Spend a day learning how to plan and audition stitch motifs for your quilt and turn it into a masterpiece

Quilt Doodle (Wednesday, June 7, 2017)

Building muscle memory through practice is the key to smooth, effortless free motion/freehand fill design with your sewing, mid-arm or long arm machine.

Doodle Plus (Thursday, June 8, 2017)

Now it's time to stretch that muscle memory and add additional designs to your free motion/freehand fill bag of tricks. Get ready to practice three feather techniques, McTavishing, concentric circles, and linier fills.

Doodling Grids & Hurky Jurky Applique (Friday, June 9 & Saturday, June 10, 2017)

Grids are HOT! They are featured on all the award-winning quilts these days. Here is your chance to play with making grids that will provide your quilted space with a place for your eye to rest. Mastering these simple repetitive shapes will help gain additional free motion confidence.
